

HELP KEEP OUR LEGACY ALIVE

I've been thinking a lot this past year about perseverance and its relationship to legacy. Pasadena Playhouse has created theatrical works for over 100 years. We have lived through economic downturns, new media, weather, wars and yes, two pandemics. And yet, we continue to thrive today because of people like you.

You have helped us become one of the longest operating theaters in the country. We have been a home for thousands of plays and musicals, for the young and the seasoned. Millions of people have come through our doors to be entertained, inspired and find community. And we have been able to do this because of the legacy that you have helped us shape.

In 2022, Pasadena Playhouse emerged from the global health crisis by saying, we have survived this long and we are not going to play it safe. We look to the next 100 years, and commit to taking risks, to being bold and adventurous. So in our 2022-2023 season, we are going big. Our six-month Stephen Sondheim Celebration, our largest education programming initiative to date, and the productions of two new plays, which are deeply timely pieces that reflect upon where we are as a country. We are able to produce work at this scale because you are rallying around us.

As the year winds down and our season ramps up, will you lift us up again? Please consider making a gift so that we can do more than endure, we can flourish.

With gratitude,
